

A Newsway a Girl.

A good looking newsway, apparently about sixteen years old, has been for some time traveling upon the cars between Cairo and Centralia, reading literature very successfully. But last week, at Centralia, it was inadvertently discovered that the good looking newsway was a girl (woman) of some twenty odd years of age. Her disguise had been so perfect that she had traveled with the other boys, played billiards, smoked cigars, and drunk whiskey, as easily and naturally as a newsway might be expected to do. Her career as a newsway we do not know. Her career as a newsway has been ended.—Cairo Times and Delta.

DIED.

At his residence in Tuscumbia, Alabama, on the 26th ult., Mr. JOHN CHANCELLOR, in the sixtieth year of his age. The deceased was a native of the State of Virginia, where at the age of twenty years he made a profession of religion, and afterwards, with his young wife, settled with the Wilderness Baptist Church. As one of the deacons of the Church for more than twenty years, he maintained an honest, consistent character, esteemed and honored by all who knew him. In 1844, he removed to Tusculum, and connected himself with the Tusculum Baptist Church. He afterwards located in Mississippi, but returned in December of the past year. A paralytic affection ten years ago, deprived him of much of that capacity for social intercourse and for usefulness to his family and to the Church, which he had formerly enjoyed. But in all his affliction, he never ceased to honor God with his confidence, and by the discharge of such of the active duties of religion as his health would permit. But a few hours before his death, he was in the possession of his ordinary strength and activity of body, but suddenly without warning, the fatal stroke laid him prostrate and he never rose again. His consistent christian life is a consoling evidence of his preparedness for death and his meekness for heaven, will have characterized as a man and a citizen, and commended the confidence and respect of the community. His funeral was attended by a numerous concourse of citizens.
